

The Walk Way

A Word from Our Community Lay Director

I must admit, I am happy to say Goodbye to winter...and so very pleased to see all the flowers and colors come alive....I once read that God laughs with the colors of spring. All that beautiful color defiantly says that spring is here, and with it our spring walks. The men's walk date is April 7-10th, ES 78, "His Love It's Amazing", John Chubb weekend Lay Director, and our Women's' walk date, April 28-May 1st, ES 79, "You Raise Me Up", Anne Ward weekend Lay Director. May God bless them both as they serve.

Emmaus is a praying community and we cover our walks in continual prayer for the 3 days, and that is a very good thing. We know that prayer can and does call God to work in our lives and we need to begin praying now for the pilgrims and for our teams, for health, safe travel and good weather.

Both teams are hard at work preparing for the pilgrims God will send to us.

Let's keep both teams in our prayers and on our calendar's. Our April gathering will be at the camp, April 9th, 7:30 P.M., followed by the men's candle lighting.

Our women's candle lighting will be April 30th, 8 P.M.

The Emmaus Bd. Meeting will be May 23rd, 7P.M., at Woodberry UMC.

While reading I came across the following prayer... It seems to speak to each of us in Emmaus, as we strive to become the hands and feet of Jesus. May I offer it as our Easter

Blessing to our Lord.

Teach us, Lord, to serve you as You deserve,

To give and not to count the cost, to fight and not

To heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest,

To labor and not to ask for any reward save that of knowing that we do

Your will.
Ignatius of Loyola

Have a Blessed Easter Celebration

Love, Peace and Joy to you all.

My Brother's Little Red Wagon

Convincing my brother to let me borrow his wagon was a real feat. He finally agreed, only if he could come with me on my secret mission.

It was right after WWII and money was hard to come by, however, I was determined, at 5 years to find a way to make my own money for one purpose, that I would be able to buy my mother a real nice present for her birthday.

I was told if I gather rags and carried them to a little printing press down the road, I could trade my rags for paper tablets. I really had big plans. My mission was coming together.

After sharing my tablets with my brother, I had plenty left, so many tablets! White ones, yellow, blue, pink. They were so beautiful, but, I had a mission in my mind, and that was to buy my mother a gift.

I went back to the same neighbors I had asked to give me the rags and sold all my tablets. So now I had the money to buy my mother a special gift.

I felt so good inside, as I saw the smile on my mother's face as I gave her the gift I had worked so hard to get her.

My brother's little red wagon, and my brother were used to carry out this mission.

Even today, I want to share the greatest challenge (mission) in my life, that is to share the good news of how real Jesus is and He can be a Saviour to all who accept Him.

Spiritual Director

We as Christians have to go through things in life everyday and sometimes we forget to ask for help, or go to God for help. I find when we do these things it makes it harder on us. However when we go to God and our friend, it takes such a load off us we didn't need to be taking in the first place. I wish I wasn't so hard headed and that I learn my lessons that way but I am.

God just scratches His head saying, "Why is she doing that when I'm just going to have to fix it?" Sometimes He's laughing at me thinking, "Poor child". But I'm glad we have a Savior to go to when we mess up, to hold our hand to help us all the way through. So when our youth of today mess up, let's not give up on them. Think how even as grownups, we mess up. Let's get out here and help them. We need you.

We need to help the youth. Please check your churches for boys and girls, ages 15 – 19, that might be able to go on a flight in the fall.

God bless you all and fly with Christ,
Debbie
